Worship in Spirit and Truth

Most of the 4th chapter of the Gospel of John is devoted to Jesus' encounter with a Samaritan woman—the woman at the well. In their conversation, they talk about the proper place to worship. For Jews, it was the temple in Jerusalem. For the Samaritans, it was Mt. Gerizim. Jesus said to her, "But the hour is coming, and is now here when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him." While places of worship, like Zion's beautiful sanctuary, are important to us and enhance our worship experience, worship is primarily a matter of the heart. As worship is the theme of this month's stewardship emphasis based on the Seven Marks of Discipleship, I would like to share some thoughts with our readers on worship as a central part of my faith journey.

I have been through four official hymnals and several supplementary hymnals in my lifetime as a Lutheran which has provided a foundation for my worship life. We commonly refer to them by their color (black, red, green, and now cranberry). Each one has been a cherished source of hymns, liturgies, psalms, prayers, occasional services, and other sources for devotion and inspiration. Each has reflected changes in language, worship styles and cultural trends while preserving the essential forms of both corporate and private worship that have guided the church through the centuries. One of the first Bible verses I learned as a child was Psalm 122:1— "I was glad when they said to me, 'Let us go to the house of the Lord'." Those were the words spoken every Sunday by the Sunday School superintendent at my home church as he called us together for opening worship before we went to our classes. The Holy Spirit put that gladness in my heart at an early age. Worship reminds me of how important God is to me in my daily life. It connects me with God. When I praise God, life becomes a song of praise. Leading worship, preaching, and administering the sacraments has been the greatest joy of my ministry.

Probably the oldest and most oft-told joke pastors must endure is that ministers only work one day of the week. In reality, when I was working full-time, Sunday was the one day I didn't work. Sunday was my play day. It was the culmination of my week's work. It was and still is pure joy. Pastor Waldemar "Fram" Framstad, a dear friend and former parishioner, would often greet me at the door at the conclusion of the worship service and exclaim, "this is my happy hour!" If Sunday morning is not your "happy hour," then I encourage you to look deep within and recognize your need to be in communion with God and in fellowship with God's people.

I am so pleased to serve Zion congregation as your Interim Pastor. In that role, I take no responsibility more seriously than leading you in worship—proclaiming God's word and administering the sacraments as vehicles of God's grace. I pray fervently that this congregation will continue to engage in vibrant worship and that Zion will continue to be a place where people experience the living presence of Jesus Christ in word and sacrament and in the midst is people.

In Christ's Service,
Pastor Doug Schoen

THANK YOU!

Zion received the following thank you note.

The DAR Boys and Girls Club:

Dear Friends of Zion Lutheran Church,

You have a heart of gold! Thank you for believing in the children in our community. Your passion to give them a fun and safe place to receive a healthy meal, learn new life skills, and enjoy time with friends and adult mentors does not go unnoticed. Thank you for trusting the DAR Boys & Girls Club to be that place for the Club children and their families.

Since 1915, DAR Boys & Girls Club of Menominee/Marinette has provided a safe, nurturing environment for children in the area. Without our Club the youth in our area would have no place to turn. Today's youth face greater challenges than ever before. Crime, drugs and delinquency are just some of the pitfalls our youth face. Without havens like Boys & Girls Clubs, life for children would be much more difficult.

The DAR is blessed to have friends like you who are willing to participate to make our Club and community a better place. Thanks again for all your hard work and helping us be the place where "Great Futures Start Here!"

Thank you so much for your donation. Your donation of $329.54 will allow us to continue our mission during this trying time. You are helping make futures a reality for the next generation of youth in our community. It is generosity and devotion that helps us do whatever it takes to meet the needs of any child who walks through our doors.

Sincerely,
Koreen Gardon, CEO

The Stewardship and Generosity Corner

The goal of Zion's Stewardship and Generosity Committee is to help God's people grow in their relationship with Jesus through the use of the time, talents, and finances God has entrusted to them.

Every weekend in July brings new and interesting things to do starting with the July 4th celebrations. There may also be family vacations and reunions, picnics, weddings, swimming at the beach, bazaars, and a vast array of other activities that are typically crammed into the warm month of July.

Amidst all this activity it's often hard to make time to attend a worship service. If this describes you and your family, it's good to know that we are fortunate to have alternatives.

In person worship is always preferred as it connects you with other Christians making the worship experience more meaningful. The next best thing, however, is having the ability to watch Sunday worship live on Zion's Facebook page. This is wonderful, especially for shut-ins and congregation members, who for one reason or another, cannot travel to Zion. While tuning in is great, it may not be ideal especially if time for worship is limited.

We are blessed to have several different avenues available to us to worship God when time becomes a scarce commodity. The first is to go to Zion's Facebook page anytime during the week, whenever convenient, and click on the worship service. If time is limited, locate the Gospel reading, and then listen to it and the sermon. These two alone will lift and refresh your spirit.

Another fantastic option is to locate a great online devotion. I can totally recommend Luther Seminary's "God Pause". It arrives daily in your inbox and contains everything you need including, a short Bible reading, a devotion, and a prayer.

Continued...

Another alternative is the Northern Great Lakes Synod "Prayfaithfully" devotion. This one does not arrive in your inbox daily so you must connect to the Synod website. Once found this site offers daily devotions for the entire week which allows you to utilize as much of it as you wish whenever you wish.

Finally, Zion receives "The Word in Season" devotional books that cover a three-month span of time. Those small free devotional books are in Zion's lobby on the table. These are especially meaningful for people who do not have ready access to a computer, the Internet, or simply like hardcopy.

As Bonnie Schoen said in her June 12th Temple Talk, we can worship anywhere. I challenge you to see how many creative ways you can spend time with God the father, his son, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit.

Deuteronomy 6:5 — "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might".

In God's peace, grace and love,
Karen Sylvester

Stewardship Initiative

Starting June 5th, the Stewardship and Generosity Committee will continue the yearlong "Stepping in Faith" stewardship initiative with another Mark of Discipleship – WORSHIP. We will be handing out the Steps in Faith Through Worship suggestion list through July 24th when this particular emphasis will end. If you have not already received the 'Next Step' magnet one will be available at worship. If you are unable to attend worship and would like the magnet and WORSHIP list, please reach out and ask one of our committee members. We pray that your Worship life will grow by using one or several of the suggestions on the list. In addition, please choose to use the following prayer to begin this week's steps in your faith journey through Worship. Dear God, life is whizzing by so quickly and I don't know how to slow it down. I've no time to sit, be quiet, and spend time with you. I want to thank you for giving me this life which I cherish, but I need your help to do so. I ask you dear Lord, to help me slow down - to spend 60 minutes at Sunday worship – to breath and be refreshed. I trust you Lord to make this happen in my life. In your holy name I pray. Amen.

Blessings!

STORIES OF FAITH IN ACTION 2022-2023

Where All May Dwell

Emily Norris had been serving at Augsburg Lutheran Church's winter-overflow homeless shelter in Winston-Salem, N.C., for a few years when she heard the rumblings. Many of the guests opened up to her, told her stories. One need kept arising.

"I heard very loudly that there was a deep hunger for a faith community that looked like them," Norris said. They craved space where they could worship God and not feel judged for their housing status, their past or their appearance. Heeding their calls led Norris to Wartburg Theological Seminary, Dubuque, Iowa, to become a pastor.

By 2020, Norris was ordained and serving as the mission developer for the Dwelling, an ELCA faith community designed for, but not exclusive to, people in Winston-Salem who are or have been homeless. Funding comes from partnerships with Augsburg, the North Carolina Synod, the Moravian Church in America and the ELCA churchwide organization, which draws on Mission Support for the Dwelling's grant.

Starting a church during a pandemic wasn't ideal. Safety restrictions made worship impossible, and the population Norris had hoped to reach became especially vulnerable. So she did what many ELCA leaders and congregations were forced to do: she pivoted.

After assessing community needs, Norris determined that free mobile showers would be the Dwelling's anchor ministry. Visitors could take showers and receive clean underwear, socks and T-shirts donated by nearby members of the Dwelling's synod.

"It was really a profound way to start," Norris said. "Showers provide a sense of dignity and are therapeutic. I don't know a better way to remind people of their baptism."

Eventually the showers became permanent, with participants volunteering to help the program. By Christmas Eve, area restrictions for gatherings had been relaxed, and Norris held the Dwelling's first service. In January 2021, it began offering regular Sunday Worship.

With a living room for its sanctuary, couches and chairs for its pews, and free flowing food, the Dwelling takes seriously its mission of hospitality. "It has a feather touch, where you can come in and get comfy," said member Cheryl Morrison. "It's OK to talk to the person next to you, get up to get a cup of coffee, doughnut or muffin."

"This is a church for God's people — the homeless — and they are the foundation of what makes this church work, which in my eyes is extremely special," added Ryan Sprinkle, a council member. "You have people right off street with their backpacks."

Sew For Missions Update

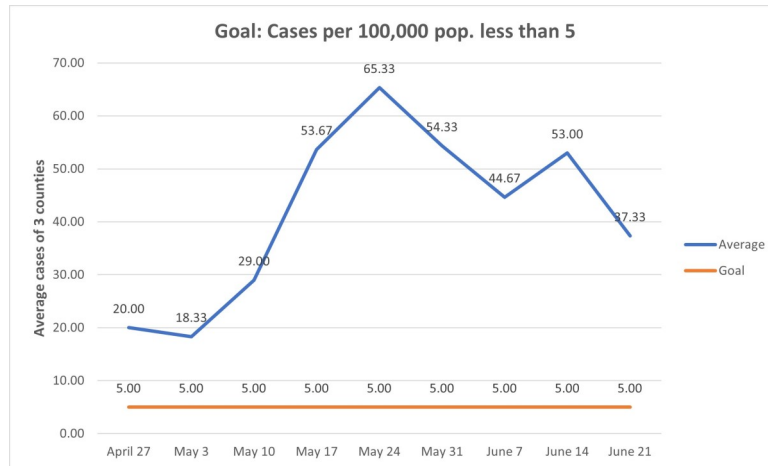

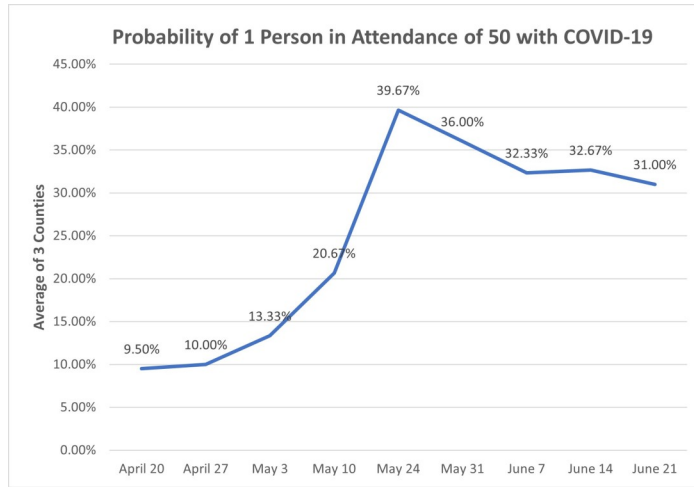

Sew for Missions has been busy!! Since the end of October, the group has created and boxed 64 quilts that will go to the ministry of Lutheran World Relief. Way to go!!!

The group would like to thank everyone for their monetary donations and donations of products.

Masking is Optional

The number of COVID-19 active infections and the positivity rate have declined to safe levels. This, along with a high vaccination rate among those who typically join us for worship, guided the Congregation Council at its March 8th meeting to decide that masking will be optional for all activities within Zion’s building, including worship. The Council also decided that our worship service will go back to our pre-pandemic practices, which will include holy communion by intinction around our altar and collecting the offering, (ushers will hold the plates). We will practice a “touchless” sharing of the Peace with waves, head nods, and lots of smiling. As soon as there is someone to sponsor coffee time following worship, that too will be available. Of course, we will continue to monitor the infection rate in our community and will take appropriate actions if they become necessary.

Eastern Europe Crisis Response

On Feb. 24, Russian forces invaded Ukraine, launching land, sea and air attacks.

Airports are now shut, and few railway lines are operational. Civilians fleeing the violence are heading toward Ukraine's western districts and such neighboring countries as Poland, Moldova, Slovakia, Romania and Hungary. Hundreds of thousands of people are seeking refuge in neighboring countries. There are major humanitarian concerns for both internally displaced people and refugees. Many of these Ukrainians fleeing their homes need shelter, basic necessities and pastoral care.

Lutheran Disaster Response is accompanying our companions in Ukraine, Hungary, Poland and Slovakia, as well as such ecumenical partners as Lutheran World Federation and Church World Service, in their humanitarian responses to the crisis. These partners provide refugees with immediate support and supplies such as food, blankets, water and hygiene kits.

The ELCA presiding bishop issued a pastoral message on Ukraine and it can be found here.

We are collecting monetary donations for Ukraine. People may also donate online through the ELCA or through Lutheran World Relief.
