From the Pastor's Desk

On February 2, Groundhog Day, the nation looks to Punxutawney, Pennsylvania to see if Punxutawney Phil will come out of his den and see his shadow, indicating that we will have six more weeks of winter. This year he did not see his shadow, supposedly meaning that we will have a shorter or milder winter this year. Given the prevailing climate, perhaps there is something to that celebratory annual event. One thing we can be certain of as we come together for worship at the beginning of Lent, as we did on Ash Wednesday, is that we do see the shadow of the cross, indicating that we will have six weeks of Lent. This deeply meaningful and spiritually enriching season is a blessing to Christians for its purpose is to bring us ever closer to Christ as we contemplate the extent of his love for us as revealed by the cross.

This year Ash Wednesday fell on Valentines Day, a day on which we express love to those dear to us. What a perfect day to observe and reflect on the meaning and message of Lent. A cartoon in the EagleHerald on February 14th stated that you cannot spell “Valentine” without “lent.” Lent and its focus on the cross is God’s love letter to us. “God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but have eternal life” (John 3:16). Jesus said, “No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends” (John 15:13). This is exactly what the Son of God did for us. “...though he existed in the form of God, he did not regard equality with God as something to be grasped, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, assuming human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross” (Philippians 2:6-8). This is “love divine, all love's excelling." I hope you will take time this Lenten season, in worship and in your private devotions and thoughts, to dwell on God's unconditional love for you demonstrated in the cross of Christ.

This past Wednesday, Zion hosted the first of five midweek Lenten services shared with our brothers and sisters in Christ at various churches in our community. At least eight churches were represented by those who attended the soup supper and service that followed. Thank you to Ann Buscher for coordinating the soup supper, our confirmation students, their parents, and others who set up the room, served the meal, and donated soup and desserts. It was a wonderful start to a meaningful series focusing on the teachings of Jesus. Keith Schroeder, who is currently serving First and Pioneer Presbyterian churches and will be leading two of the midweek services, recorded the service. If you were not able to attend and would like to observe the service, you will find it on the Facebook page of First Presbyterian Church in Menominee.

The churches participating in our midweek Lenten series, along with other churches, will be involved in the Good Friday Community Service sponsored by the Twin County Ministerial Association. The service will be held at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Marinette from noon to 3:00 p.m. with six preachers in half-hour segments.

In my article in last month's ZionNews, I wrote about the ministries of the Northern Great Lakes Synod that we support through our benevolence contributions (11% of our annual budget). The article mentioned several of those ministries that are led by Rev. Jim Duehring, Assistant to the Bishop. We will be privileged to have Pastor Jim with us on March 3rd. He will lead worship and preach. There will be a coffee fellowship following the service which will give our members an opportunity to have conversation with Pastor Jim.

Each year the Mission Endowment Committee awards grants to various service agencies in our community. Through the year we invite representatives of those agencies to speak to us briefly about the services they provide and how our grant monies are used by them to serve people in our community. On Sunday, February 25, a representative of Biehl Bridges spoke during the opening announcements. On March 10, the director of Abundant Life Mission, Inc. in Menominee will be our guest.

Going where Jesus leads, let us walk the way of the cross together in this Lenten season. May God bless you on your journey.

In Christ's Service,
Pastor Doug

Our Christian Sympathy

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to Steve Hoheneder whose mother, Judy, died on February 10, and whose father, Roger, died on February 21. His parents were members of Faith Lutheran Church in Marinette where their funeral services will take place. We pray that Steve and his family will be comforted by God's loving embrace and by the hope of the resurrection in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Letter from Bishop Finegan

⁶I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. ⁷So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. ⁸The one who plants and the one who waters have a common purpose, ⁹For we are God's servants, working together;...

~1 Corinthians 3: 6-9

Dear People of the Northern Great Lakes Synod,

At the risk of getting too personal, I share with you that my mother joined the Saints Triumphant on February 11. As the deadline for this article is February 12, I cannot help but approach this task with thoughts of my mother at the forefront.

In this year, as together we as a synod consider what it means to be a Seed Sower and what it means to plant, and as I make plans with my siblings to celebrate the life of my mother, I can think of no better example of one who planted seeds and one who witnessed the yield of seeds planted by others long ago.

My mother was born in India in July 1932, the daughter of missionaries. She, along with her four siblings, was brought up in the faith. She was taught the love of Jesus, the value of compassion, and the expectation of sharing the love of God in a way that makes a difference. The seeds of faith planted in her bore fruit as she became a nurse, the wife of a seminary professor, the mother of five children, and a generous giver of time, talents, and treasure. She sang in choirs, kissed scraped knees, worked church funerals and became a matriarch of her community of faith. She was a parish nurse at Luther Seminary and her church library was named after her in honor of the hours invested in cataloging, arranging, and gathering literature.

I could go on. But of course, it is the rare mother that doesn't inspire the accolades of her children. My mother was no exception. But in this season of Seed Sowers, I am grateful for the seeds of faith, and the example of generosity, that my mother gave me and all who knew her.

She not only planted seeds but enjoyed the fruit of seeds planted by others. She witnessed the seeds planted by missionaries when years later, she returned to India to visit the church and seminary founded by my grandfather and others. She saw how many pastors, native to India, had graduated from that seminary and students that are attending.

We give thanks for the churches that were planted and the people who came to know Jesus through their efforts.

And now? I invite you to consider what seeds of faith you are planting. Whether you are working to pass on the faith to the next generation, or enjoying the fruit of seeds planted long ago, I invite you to intentionally plant seeds for future faith, future ministry. This can happen in many ways:

- Volunteer
- Share your story of faith with a stranger, doubts and all
- Support a ministry effort with your financial gift.
- Share your story of faith with a loved one.
- Remember THE Church or Your church in your will.
- Work on your own discipleship. Take a class, go to church, invite a friend.

In this time of great change, I am grateful for the seeds of faith planted long ago, and the seeds of faith planted now which will bear fruit in the future. We are part of a great cycle of life, this shape of the Christian life that involves dying and rising, Good Friday and Easter, death and resurrection, planting and harvesting.

The spirit of my mother lives on in those who remember her, and the Spirit of the Living Christ lives as only the son of God can - to call, enlighten and sanctify those who gather and are sent in his name, to plant seeds that someone else will water, and someone else will harvest.

I give thanks for the blessing of my mother, and for all who have planted seeds of faith.

ELCA World Hunger Turns 50!

For 50 years we have joined together as Lutherans to address the root causes of hunger and poverty around the world through ELCA World Hunger. Part of our church's long tradition of meeting human needs, ELCA World Hunger testifies to our hope for and commitment to God's promise of a time when we will hunger and thirst no more. In 2024 we will commemorate the 50th anniversary of this ministry. We have made great strides, but once again we face a startling increase in global hunger. As we reflect on our last 50 years of ministry together, we know God calls us to respond to the needs of the world now more than ever.

This year, Zion's Social Ministry committee is challenging you to give 50/50 for 50. Here's how it will work: Our goal to give to ELCA World Hunger in May is $5,000 PLUS an additional gift of 5,000 "pieces" of food to be given to our local shelters. One "piece" will be one can of soup, one pack of ramen, one jar of peanut butter, one box of pasta. We'll be collecting money AND non-perishable food between now and April 28th.

We'll stack our gifts of food into a mountain at the front of the sanctuary. All monetary gifts may be given using any envelope clearly marked for World Hunger.

Join us and write the story of our next 50 years together as, boldly and hopefully, we pursue God's promise of a just world where all are fed.

Anniversary Committee Needs to be Formed

2025 will mark the 150th anniversary of Zion Lutheran Church. The Stewardship and Generosity Corner

The goal of Zion's Stewardship and Generosity Committee is to help God's people grow in their relationship with Jesus through the use of the time, talents, and finances God has entrusted to them.

The Stewardship and Generosity Committee encourages you to continue to concentrate on STUDY during the month of March. Zion's Vision Statement says to fulfill this vision, families will regularly use materials for at home Bible study, and congregational groups will regularly gather to study the scriptures.

To this end, STUDY Sheets will be inserted into the bulletin during the month of March to encourage STUDY of the Gospel Lesson for the upcoming Sunday. STUDY Sheets may be in the form of a crossword puzzle, fill-in-the-blanks, a word search, etc. and are being provided as a catalyst to individual or family at home Bible STUDY.

Proverbs 1:5 "Let the wise also hear and gain in learning, and the discerning acquire skill."

Biblical scholars believe King Solomon wrote much of the Book of Proverbs. He was thought to be Israel's wisest king, and in this reading he is encouraging the wise to listen and to continue learning. Even Jesus continued to grow throughout his earthly life, not only physically, but also in learning.

As we go through life, we too continue learning, but how can we expand our knowledge of Jesus? We can read and STUDY the Bible. We can attend worship and attentively listen to the sermon. We can also grow by listening to others in our faith community. That is what The Lutheran Hour is all about – sharing and listening and growing! A small group of our faith community have been meeting every Sunday after worship in February. Recently the participants decided to continue sharing this time together. We have had wonderfully enriching conversations which we plan to continue as long as we can. Each week brings a new discussion about the sermon that week and the reading on which that sermon is based. You can bring your favorite Bible, but it isn't required. Freshly brewed coffee will always be available. Please consider joining us on any (or every!) Sunday after worship, and with us, continue to grow in our understanding and knowledge of the Bible from one another.

In God's love, joy, and peace

Ruth Circle Group_____

The Ruth Circle Group will meet March 21st at 3 p.m. in Zion's family room. All are welcome to attend.
