Communion

"Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people." (Acts 2:46-47a) Starting Mar 9, we started using gluten free bread for communion. This is one loving way to extend care and hospitality to our neighbors with dietary needs. Some for whom cross-contamination could be lethal. For instance, dipping regular and gluten free into the same wine/grape juice. It eliminates the need for assistants to take extra steps when setting up the Lord's Supper. Lastly, using bread is a meaningful way that one or more siblings in Christ can share their God-given gifts and serve the church. It has come to our attention recently that a few folks have concerns about swallowing issues, so there will now also be gluten free wafers available.
